ALA GIRLS NATION AT CAPITOL HILL!

MONUMENT TOUR

The ALA Girls Nation senators started their afternoon on Capitol Hill before walking the mall to visit different monuments. Stops included the Washington Monument, World War II Memorial, MLK Jr, FDR Memorial, Thomas Jefferson Memorial, and the Lincoln Memorial. Don't worry, the ALA Girls Nation senators took almost as many pictures today as they did steps!

PARTY CONVENTIONS

Political party conventions are always an exciting time at ALA Girls Nation. The girls who were selected to be a part of the convention committee on Sunday afternoon are able to see their hard work pay off. Following the guidelines established by the girls, each year each party has a truly unique experience as they select their official party nominees for president and vice [resident. Following the rules made by a committee of the senators. Along with narrowing down their choices to two well qualified candidates, the senators learned party chants and cheers, created campaign posters, and started to prepare for tomorrow's two party rally.

SENATE WORK AND PARTY CONVENTIONS

Senators worked hard in party conventions to elect their vice president and presidential nominees. The competition heated up with many girls interested in running for both positions. The election process included speeches and answering debate questions on topics ranging from immigration to the environment and religious freedom in the private sector. Top candidates were selected in each round until a winner was elected. All of the candidates were poised and well spoken. The nominees in each party were announced as a ticket.
